"Fish Buddy",

I guess you're really burning up the O.A.K. I expect to see you #1 man in the league next year so don't get all cocky and let "the flash Johnson" tear you up. I have a feeling that Johnson and you contribute to my chemistry citizenship accomplishments so I be a buddy and calm Johnson when he gets hysterical. Be cool in the pool and be a really "gregarious" guy. Don't forget "copesetic" is the custom.

"The Melody Lingers On"

OAKLAND TECHNICAL HIGH SCHOOL

Dedication...

School life in Tech is like a catchy tune which will linger with the students all their lives.

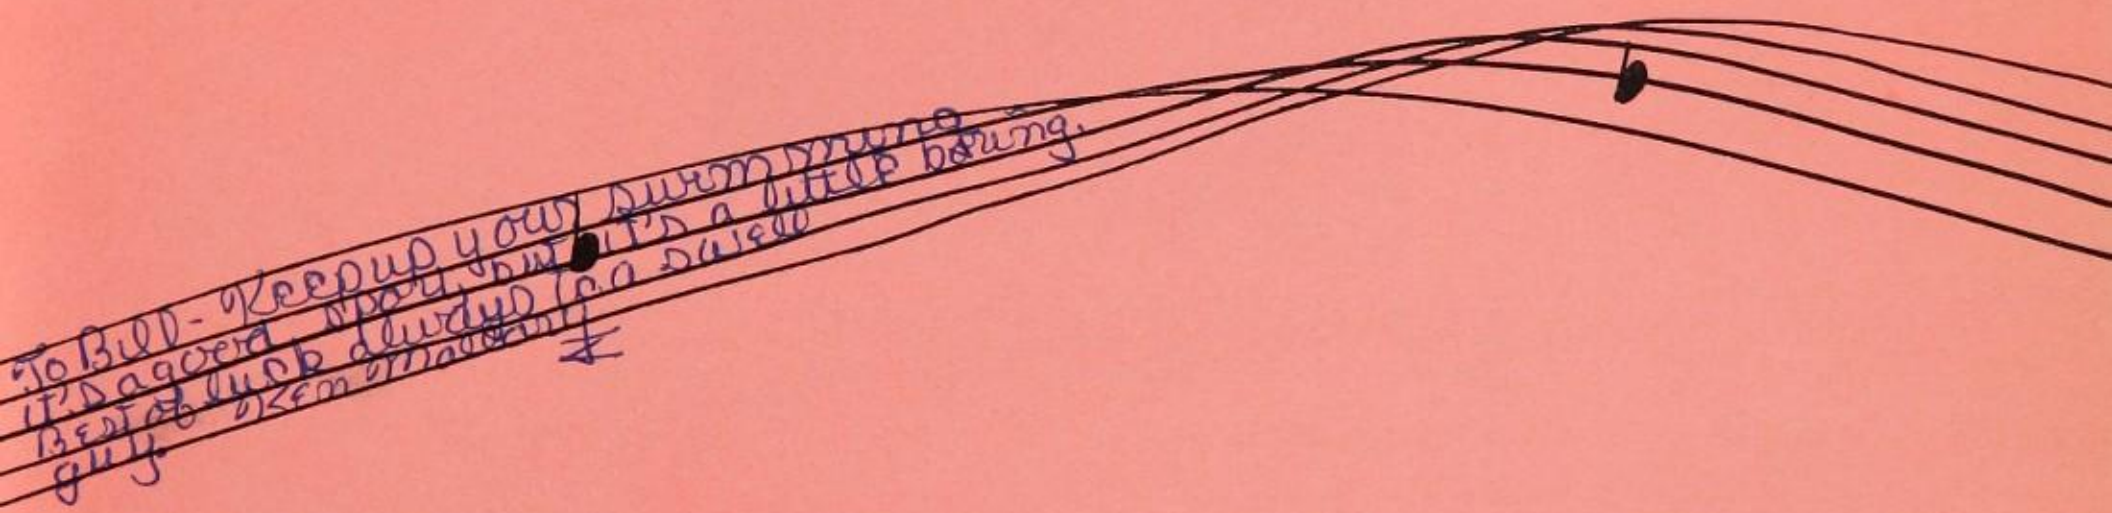
We, the members of the Talisman staff, "Sincerely" dedicate this book to those Technites who have burned the midnight oil.

"How Important Can It Be" and "Teach Me Tonight" may have mingled in our minds as we struggled to get "In the Mood" to do our homework. Later, however, we realized that we were "Young and Foolish."

In our years at Tech, we, the seniors, have had "Six Bridges to Cross," but we are now departing on a "Long, Long Trail" through life. Others will be a part of the melody of Tech for a few more years.

We hope all Technites will walk "On the Sunny Side of the Street" as "The Melody Lingers On."

"Young at Heart"



School Administration

Administration

PRINCIPAL GEORGE C. BLISS has been at Tech only three years, and during this time has done a great deal to improve Tech. All Technites appreciate his kindly understanding of their many and varied problems.

MISS ROSABELLE SCOTT, dean of girls, co-ordinated the social activities of Tech into a year filled with enjoyment for everyone. Her warmth of manner and her friendliness will be remembered.

MR. CHARLES B. GILMORE, dean of boys, made an impression on all students, not only as a man with a sense of humor, but as one who gave everything he could for the betterment of Tech.

Classes

Senior Counselor

Mrs. Ioan Meckfessel, counselor of the January, 1955 class, guided her counselees through six wonderful semesters. Memories of her co-operation, friendliness, and pleasing smile will remain with them always. Problems arose during this time, but many felt, after talking with Mrs. Meckfessel, that maybe their problems were not so big after all.

Senior Leaders

Fall Clubs

Clubs, the staff bars of our school, play an important part in our school lives, for through them we learn to enjoy the companionship of fellow students and to appreciate the interest and guidance of faculty members. Without clubs life in school would be like an unfinished symphony.

Drama Department

"I Remember Mama", the fall term play, was presented on the nights of October 28 and 29, 1954. The cast consisted of 29 members of the drama department, but there were many students and faculty members who put their efforts into this production.

Shown above are two scenes from "Dress Suit", presented at an assembly during the spring term.

In the upper left hand corner are the members of the National Thespian Society. The president in the fall term was Aldo Dossa, and taking over as president in the spring was Jack Osterberg. Mrs Mary Lynch is the sponsor.

The stage crew is on the left. The crew, which plays an important part in the production of the plays and assemblies, was supervised by Mr. Hal Clarke.

The spring term play, not pictured, was "Quiet Summer". It was presented on May 26 and 27.

THERE IS AN HONOR in Business that is the fine gold of it; that reckons with every man justly; that loves light; that regards kindness and fairness more highly than goods or prices or profit.
